

THE RESILIENCE WHEEL

The Resilience Wheel is a self-evaluation tool that helps you realize where your strengths and weaknesses are when it comes to resilience. Don't worry about your scores—we are all works in progress. Completing the wheel exercise is easy. After you go through it once, you'll be a pro. And if you become discouraged because there is still progress to be made, always remember we are looking for progress, not perfection.

The wheel exercise begins with a set of questions. After you read a question, simply rate yourself on the following scale: Poor (1-3), Fair (4-5), Good (6-7), Prosperous (8-10). Each wheel diagram contains a set of spokes, similar to the spokes on a bicycle wheel.

After you answer each wheel exercise question, chart your answer on the wheel. Find the spoke that matches the label of the question. Then, simply place a dot on the spoke next to the number that corresponds with your answer. After scoring yourself on every spoke, connect the dots to create a circle. Note that the higher a number is, the closer it is to the outer section of the wheel, while lower scores are more toward the middle. Now, at the end of each spoke, list the names or titles of people or organizations that provide you with this type of support. It's okay to list the same person, title, or organization in more than one spoke.

The Resilience Wheel

Chart your responses on The Resilience Wheel. Let's start at the top: are you Poor, Prosperous, or somewhere in between when it comes to viewing Challenges as Opportunities? Put a dot on the spoke next to the number that corresponds with your answer. Now, continue going around the wheel and after scoring yourself on every spoke, connect the dots to create a circle.

Date your wheel and file it for later reference. Consider revisiting this exercise monthly or quarterly to keep building your resilience. Soon you will be a resilience rock star!

Answer the following questions:

- Look at the dents in your wheel and notice which three areas you need the most improvement when it comes to resilience?

- How have you improved your resilience since you started this program?

- In what ways do you plan to continue to foster resilience in your life?
