#4 Essence

“Whenever you feel superior or inferior to anyone, that is the ego in you.”

-Eckhart Tolle

Healthy self-esteem is midway between Diva and Doormat

Doormat	Successful Self	Diva/Divo
Underearner, accepts low pay, may overspend on others, neglects self	Balanced earning and spending, earns enough to thrive and prosper, balanced spending on self and others	Demands high pay, overspends on self, stingy with others
Financial struggle (Disclaimer: Not all people who struggle financially are Doormats, but Doormat behavior leads to financial struggle.)	Financial peace and stability, altruism, generosity, enoughness	Greed, dominance, corruption, living beyond means, living a financial lie, materialism, excess
Focuses on debts instead of assets while feeling destined to live a life of modest financial means	Knows actual net worth (assets minus liabilities) and has a realistic yet optimistic financial outlook	Focuses on assets while having delusional, grandiose visions of success

Be Assertive

- Find your voice
- Be direct, honest and clear
- Demonstrate respect for self and others
- Learn to say no
- Be proactive, not just reactive

#5 Responsibility

“Everything you do is based on the choices you make. It's not your parents, your past relationships, your job, the economy, the weather, an argument or your age that is to blame. You and only you are responsible for every decision and choice you make.”

- Wayne Dyer, The Power of Intention

Take the Reins of Your Financial Life

- Shift from blame to acceptance
- Practice forgiveness to emancipate yourself
- Become the author of your money story

Promote Your Financial Literacy

- Budgeting
- Banking
- Investing
- Reading bills and reports
- Understanding interest and fees
- Empowerment
